Where we are - or, where we aren't

Okay, so guess what? We're moving to another temporary, interim, in-between kind of location. Is this getting old for anyone?

Likely you've been hearing all of our less-than-positive news about the new building. It remains to be seen how things will work themselves out, but in the mean time, we have to pack up our boxes and start over one more time.

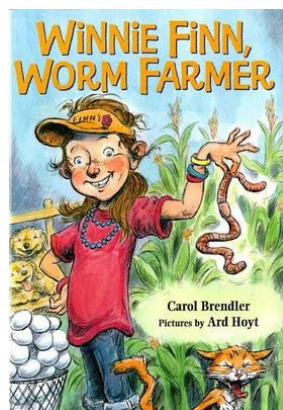

The good news is that we're not going far – just a few stores north of here, in fact. We have had the good fortune of being able to lease the spot that is currently occupied by Rowland Leather (1095 Bank Street).

Our last day of business here at 1115 Bank will be Saturday September 26th. We will be packing and hauling from the 27th to October 2nd and plan on reopening at 1095 Bank October 3rd!

Check out all the titles at 50% off on the sale table! We can't move everything.

Book Launch: Winnie Finn, Worm Farmer

Join local author Carol Brendler for the launch of her children's book: Winnie Finn, Worm Farmer this Saturday, September 19 from 1-2 p.m.

She'll have her worm farm with her!

Winnie Finn is crazy about earthworms and knows everything about them. When spring arrives in Quincy County, all she can think about is the county fair coming up. This year, she would like nothing more than to win a prize for her worms so that she might buy a shiny new wagon for transporting them around. Trouble is, there's no prize at the fair for worms . . . . Bright, energetic illustrations accompany this jaunty tale about a young girl's creativity that will inspire readers of all interests— but especially those with a love for something wiggly

Online orders

Can you believe it? We are joining Buck Rogers in the 25th century and are now able to reserve books for our busy patrons by using that internet you always hear so much about. You may well ask – how is this possible? Simple:

Go to our website www.kaleidoscopekidsbooks.ca and click on “Order the Book” in our top navigation.

You also have the option to go straight to our searchable system via the following link: <http://bookmanager.com/kalekid/?&STG=2084433078>

Once you arrive at this page, you can search by title, author or keyword and you may also note that new releases are highlighted down the right hand side of the page. On the left hand side, a list of soon-to-be-released titles appears.

To place an order or reserve a book, you need to start an “account” with us. Click on the “I’m New” link at the top right of the page. You’ll be asked for your email address and then sent a confirmation to begin registering to that account as soon as you click the button that says “send me the verification email now”.

Gift Registry

We have a gift registry service available – ideal for grandparents, aunts and uncles who are looking to give the perfect gift.

Book Clubs & Storytime

Adults

After a whole summer of beach reading, it's back to the books for our group. We'll be bringing some new rigour to this meeting, setting up a schedule in advance for the first few books so that we're all able to navigate the way through a busy fall season. The next book we'll be discussing is Meg Rosoff's How I Live Now. The date of the next club will be established once we survive our move...

"Every war has turning points and every person too."

Fifteen-year-old Daisy is sent from Manhattan to England to visit her aunt and cousins she's never met: three boys near her age, and their little sister. Her aunt goes away on business soon after Daisy arrives. The next day bombs go off as London is attacked and occupied by an unnamed enemy.

As power fails, and systems fail, the farm becomes more isolated. Despite the war, it's a kind of Eden, with no adults in charge and no rules, a place where Daisy's uncanny bond with her cousins grows into something rare and extraordinary. But the war is everywhere, and Daisy and her cousins must lead each other into a world that is unknown in the scariest, most elemental way.

Storytime

Please rejoin us for storytime at 10am on Friday mornings, starting in September. Bring your preschooler in for some stories and songs. We've had all summer to find some new titles to wow the kids, so drop by and lend us your ears (bring your friends, or some Romans or countrymen...) for a short while.
